Handbook of Research on

In-Country Determinants and Implications of Foreign Land Acquisitions

Evans Osabuohien

Part of the Advances in Finance, Accounting, and Economics Book Series

Evans Osabuohien

(Covenant University, Nigeria & German Development Institute, Germany)

Several studies have investigated the impetus and implications behind large-scale land acquisitions/deals at the global level; however, intranational factors within communities and societies have not received much attention from researchers.

The Handbook of Research on In-Country Determinants and Implications of Foreign Land Acquisitions examines the economic, sociological, and environmental issues surrounding land transactions and the impact these deals may have on local households and communities. Focusing on international issues as well as domestic concerns, this publication is a useful reference for policymakers, academics, researchers, and advanced-level students in various disciplines.

Topics Covered:

- Agricultural Production and Export
- Colonial Heritage
- Environmental Impacts
- Food Security
- Land Conflicts
- Land Reforms
- Legal Frameworks of Land Acquisitions
