

Global Perspectives on Development Administration and Cultural Change

Part of the Advances in Public Policy and Administration Book Series

Gbenga Emmanuel Afolayan (Murdoch University, Australia) and Akeem Ayofe Akinwale (University of Lagos Nigeria)

Description:

As countries around the world make continuous strides in developing their economies, it has become increasingly important to evaluate the different ways culture impacts the growth of a region.

Global Perspectives on Development Administration and Cultural Change investigates the impact of economic growth on different demographics throughout the world. Identifies theoretical concepts and notable topics in the areas of economic development, organizational culture, and cultural shifts.

Readers:

This book is an essential reference source for policymakers, development planners, international institutions, public policy analysts, administrators, researchers, and NGOs.

ISBN: 9781522506294

Release Date: September, 2016

Copyright: 2017

Pages: 250

Topics Covered:

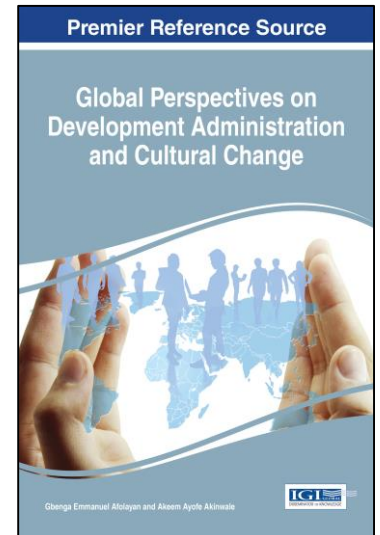

- Criminal Behavior
- Entrepreneurship Policy
- Global Business
- Indigenous Knowledge
- Migration
- Organizational Culture

Hardcover +
Free E-Access:

$170.00

E-Access +
Free Hardcover:

$170.00

Order Information

Phone: 717-533-8845 x100
Toll Free: 1-866-342-6657
Fax: 717-533-8661 or 717-533-7115
Online Bookstore: www.igi-global.com

Table of Contents

Chapter 1:

Development Administration in Contemporary Africa: An Explorative Analysis

Chapter 2:

Developing diversity neutral organizational culture: A study on selected CPSEs of India

Chapter 3:

Cybersecurity Best Practices and Cultural Change in Global Business: Some Perspectives from the European Union

Chapter 4:

Re-Centering Culture in Development Administration in Africa: Remedies for Nigeria

Chapter 5:

Entrepreneurship Policy Framework: Understanding Cultural and Educational determinants for Entrepreneurship

Chapter 6:

The Role of Indigenous Knowledge System in African Development Status: Attached for submission (Co-editor's contribution)

Chapter 7:

Shift in Paradigm - Organizational Values and Performance

Chapter 8:

Working for the Collective - A Comparative Analysis of Communist Subbotniks and American Charities

Chapter 9:

The Influence of Migration and Crime on Development in Lagos, Nigeria

Gbenga Emmanuel Afolayan is currently a doctoral candidate at Murdoch University, Australia. He holds two master's degrees in development studies and public policy and management from the International Institute of Social Studies of Erasmus University Rotterdam (Netherlands) and University of York (United Kingdom) respectively. His research focuses on education and international development, social inequalities, public policies and development administration, widowhood and women's studies, feminist economics, human rights and social justice.

Akeem Akinwale is Senior Lecturer in the Department of Industrial Relations and Personnel Management, University of Lagos, Nigeria. His research interests include industrial sociology and development studies. He is an active member of various professional associations including the International Sociological Association, the Global Development Network, and the Nigerian Young Academy. Dr Akinwale is a Laureate of the Council for the Development of Social Science Research in Africa.