

Navigating Post-Doctoral Career Placement, Research, and Professionalism

Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development Book Series

Noran L. Moffett (Fayetteville State University, USA)

Description:

Upon completion of a doctoral degree, how does the newly-minted doctoral completer move forward with their career? Without a plan, or even a mentor as a guide, the path forward may be filled with a variety of professional and personal challenges to overcome.

Navigating Post-Doctoral Career Placement, Research, and Professionalism

is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of navigating the post-doc, professional environment while also handling the personal anxieties that accompany this navigation. While highlighting topics including self-care, graduate education, and professional planning, this book is ideally designed for doctoral candidates, program directors, recruitment officers, and postgraduate retention specialists.
