International Education and the Next-Generation Workforce: Competition in the Global Economy

Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development (AHEPD) Book Series

Victor C. X. Wang
(Florida Atlantic University, USA)

Education is the first stage in developing a viable, dynamic, and long-lived global economy. Unfortunately, in times of economic hardship, educational programs, teacher salaries, and extracurricular opportunities are often the first to be cut.

International Education and the Next-Generation Workforce: Competition in the Global Economy presents a detailed discussion of present educational principles and policies, and their impact on the effectiveness of education in a multi-national context. The chapters in this pivotal reference contribute to the body of literature bridging the gap between the fields of business and education, providing educators and business professionals at all levels with an instruction manual for the next generation of employment-focused teaching and learning.

Topics Covered:
- Chinese Pedagogy
- Classroom Discussion
- Collaborative Learning
- English Language Learning
- Global Education
- International E-Learning
- Open Education
- Workforce Readiness

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners. Ideal for classroom use.
