

New Practices for Entrepreneurship Innovation

Part of the New Practices for Entrepreneurship Innovation Book Series

Syed Ahmed Salman (Lincoln University College, Malaysia) and Amiya Bhaumik (Lincoln University College, Malaysia)

Description:

Modern business's fast-paced, ever-evolving nature presents a significant challenge for entrepreneurs and business leaders. Staying abreast of emerging trends, technologies, and consumer preferences is crucial for maintaining a competitive edge. However, with the constant influx of information and the rapid pace of change, many struggle to keep up. This can lead to missed opportunities, outdated strategies, and, ultimately, stagnation or failure in the market.

New Practices for Entrepreneurship Innovation offers a solution to this challenge by providing a comprehensive guide to navigating the complexities of the modern business landscape. It equips readers with the knowledge and tools they need to thrive, offering not just theoretical concepts but practical insights and real-world examples. This emphasis on practicality makes the book a valuable and applicable resource, ensuring that the audience feels that they are gaining actionable knowledge.

This book can improve the understanding of business and entrepreneurship for postgraduate students, researchers, lecturers, and industry practitioners. It is a valuable resource for anyone who wants to stay ahead of the curve, whether you're a seasoned entrepreneur or a budding business enthusiast just starting out. With this book, you can gain the knowledge and inspiration you need to succeed in today's competitive business world.
