

Community-Based Language Learning and Cultural Competence

Princy Pappachan (National Chiayi University, Taiwan)

Harlinda Syofyan (Esa Unggul University, Indonesia)

Description:

Community-based language learning emphasizes the value of immersive, real-world contexts in fostering both linguistic proficiency and cultural competence. By engaging with native speakers and building relationships within diverse communities, learners gain deeper insights into different cultural dimensions that can help shape communication. This approach not only enhances language acquisition but also promotes empathy and social inclusion. Community-based language learning serves as a powerful tool for bridging cultural divides and cultivating meaningful global citizenship.

Community-Based Language Learning and Cultural Competence explores the rapidly evolving development of community-based language learning, driven by technological advancements and linguistic research. This book offers comprehensive insights into the integration of technology, management principles, linguistic theories, and social contexts in language education. Covering topics such as culture, linguistics, and language, this book is an excellent resource for educators, researchers, academicians, administrators, and more.
