Part of the Advances in Library and Information Science (ALIS) Book Series

Susmita Chakraborty (University of Calcutta, India) and Anup Kumar Das (Jawaharlal Nehru University, India)

With the introduction of the Bologna Process, the emphasis on the importance of international librarianship and its activity between governmental or non-governmental institutions, organizations, and groups of nations has continued to grow.

Collaboration in International and Comparative Librarianship highlights the importance of international librarianship in governmental and non-governmental institutions, organizations, and groups in order to promote, develop, and maintain librarianship and the library profession around the world. This publication is essential for graduate students, researchers, teachers, and LIS administrators in the field of library science.

Topics Covered:

- Collaborative Authorship in LIS
- Comparative Librarianship
- Cultural & Information Agencies
- Influence Factors with LIS
- International Librarianship
- International Non-Governmental Organizations in LIS
- Learning from Developed Countries

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners. Ideal for classroom use.

Susmita Chakraborty is an Assistant Professor in the University of Calcutta teaching 'Digital Content Management' and 'Technical Writing' to MLIS students. She is a Gold Medalist (M. Lib.
