

Narratives on Defining Moments for Women Leaders in Higher Education

Part of the Advances in Educational Marketing, Administration, and Leadership Book Series

Heidi L. Schnackenberg (SUNY Plattsburgh, USA)

Description:

In the intricate tapestry of life there exist moments in our lives that define us as individuals and as part of our communities. To gain insights into what makes a great leader, we can learn from those who have built the road before us. A profound exploration of pivotal experiences that shape the personal and professional trajectories of women in academia will help pave the way for the leaders of the future. Navigating the intersection of both personal and professional spheres, the book, Narratives on Defining Moments for Women Leaders in Higher Education, delves into the profound impact of high-impact moments in the lives of women in leadership roles.

Drawing on personal anecdotes and evidence-based practices, readers gain insight into the strategies, solutions, and resilience cultivated by women leaders in colleges and universities. From tales of perseverance and empowerment to reflections on reframing and reinvention, each narrative offers a unique perspective on the journey of women in academia.

Authored by administrators, faculty, and staff who intimately understand the challenges faced by women leaders, this book offers a compelling narrative journey through the triumphs, struggles, and transformative moments that mold powerful women in higher education. With a keen focus on fostering understanding and empowerment, this book addresses specific challenges faced by women leaders in higher education. From nurturing and empowering others to creating access for marginalized groups, the stories shared within these pages illuminate the multifaceted roles women leaders play in shaping the future of academia. Whether you're an administrator, faculty member, professional staff, graduate student, or researcher, this book serves as a valuable resource for expanding your understanding of leadership, resilience, and empowerment in higher education.
