

Space and Organizational Considerations in Academic Library Partnerships and Collaborations

Part of the Advances in Library and Information Science (ALIS) Book Series

Brian Doherty (New College of Florida, USA)

Description:

A vital component of any academic institution, libraries are held to and expected to maintain certain standards. In order to meet these standards and better accommodate the student and faculty body they serve, many libraries are recognizing the benefit of forging relationships with other professional and academic entities.

Space and Organizational Considerations in Academic Library Partnerships and Collaborations is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on and methods for utilizing existing spaces within libraries to facilitate collection development in addition to discussions on how on-campus and off-campus partnerships can assist in this endeavor. Focuses on issues related to faculty and researcher collaborations, collection management, and professional development.

Readers:

This book is ideally designed for administrators, librarians, academicians, MLIS students, and information professionals.

ISBN: 9781522503262

Release Date: May, 2016

Copyright: 2016

Pages: 406

Topics Covered:

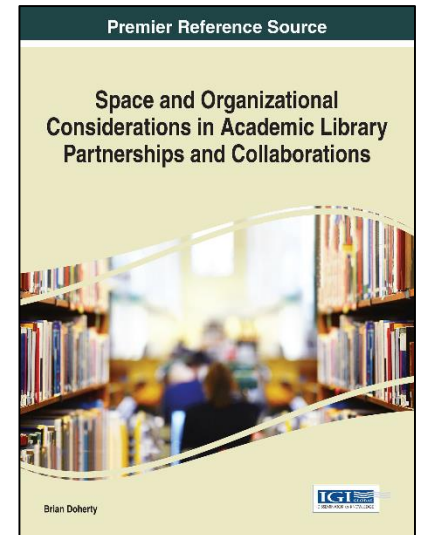

- Digital Libraries
- Government Publishing
- Joint Use Libraries
- Library Consortia
- Library-Sponsored Conferences
- Open Access
- Scholarly Publishing

Hardcover +
Free E-Access:

$200.00

E-Access +
Free Hardcover:

$200.00

Order Information

Phone: 717-533-8845 x100

Toll Free: 1-866-342-6657

Fax: 717-533-8661 or 717-533-7115

Online Bookstore: www.igi-global.com

Table of Contents	The Portal to Texas History: Building a Partnership Model for a Statewide Digital Library Dreanna Belden, University of North Texas, USA Mark E. Phillips, University of North Texas, USA Tara Carlisle, University of Oklahoma, USA Cathy Nelson Hartman, University of North Texas, USA
Foreword
Preface
Acknowledgment
Chapter 1	Chapter 10
Better Together: the Successful Public/Academic Joint Use Library Michelle R Desilets, Metropolitan State University, USA Jennifer DeJonghe, Metropolitan State University, USA Michelle Filkins, Metropolitan State University, USA	Processes, Opportunities and Challenges Creating and Managing a Scholarly Open Access Journal: an Investigation of Collaborative Librarianship Ivan Gaetz, Colorado College, USA
Chapter 2	Chapter 11
Marriage after Divorce: the Challenges and Opportunities of a Shared Library after Institutions Separate Brian Doherty, New College of Florida, USA	Moving from Co-location to Cooperation to Collaboration: Redefining the Library's Role within the University Carrie Kruse, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA Rosemary Bodolay, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA Steve Frye, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA Dave Luke, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA
Chapter 3	Chapter 12
Building the Bridge: Deep Collaboration among Liberal Arts College Libraries Bradley L. Schaffner, Carleton College, USA Roberta L. Lembke, St. Olaf College, USA	Librarian and Peer Research Mentor Partnerships that Promote Student Success Carolyn White Gamso, University of New Hampshire at Manchester, USA Rachel Blair Vogt, University of New Hampshire at Manchester, USA Annie Donahue, University of New Hampshire at Manchester, USA Kimberly Donovan, University of New Hampshire at Manchester, USA Jennifer Jefferson, MassBay Community College, USA
Chapter 4	Chapter 13
The Library as Center for Innovation: a Collaboration at the University of Maryland Gary W. White, University of Maryland, USA	Concept, Conversion, Cultivation and Consequence: The Four C's of Successful Collaboration Hayley Johnson, Nicholls State University Sarah Simms, Nicholls State University
Chapter 5	Chapter 14
Academic Libraries in Partnership with the Government Publishing Office: a Changing Paradigm Barbara Costello, Stetson University, USA	Publish or Perish: Librarians Collaborating to Support Junior Faculty to Publish within the Academic Environment Emy Nelson Decker, Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library, USA Rosaline Y. Odom, Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library, USA
Chapter 6	Chapter 15
A Statewide Collaborative Storage and Print Repository Model: the Florida Academic Repository Benjamin Walker, University of Florida, USA Tabatha Pursley, University of Florida, USA	Collaborating to Create a Fashionable Event: Guide for Creating a Library-Sponsored Conference Nicole Elizabeth LaMoreaux, LIM College, USA Compilation of References
Chapter 7	About the Contributors
Collaborative Weeding among Public University Libraries Can Lead to Cost Savings for All Helen N. Levenson, Oakland University, USA	Index
Chapter 8
The Evolution of Collaborative Collection Development within a Library Consortium: Data Analysis Applied in a Cultural Context Anne Osterman, Virtual Library of Virginia, USA Genya O'Gara, James Madison University, USA Alison M. Armstrong, Radford University, USA
Chapter 9

Brian Doherty is Dean of the Jane Bancroft Cook Library serving New College of Florida and the University of South Florida, Sarasota-Manatee. Formerly, he was Director of the Library at Arizona State University, Polytechnic, and music librarian at several institutions. His research centers on library administration and nineteenth- and early twentieth-century music history. His publications have appeared in a number of music and library science journals and encyclopedias. He has served on committees and held offices for local, regional and national organizations, including the American Library Association, the Association for College and Research Libraries, the Library Leadership and Management Association, the Tampa Bay Library Consortium, the Society for American Music and the Music Library Association.