

Psycholinguistics and Cognition in Language Processing

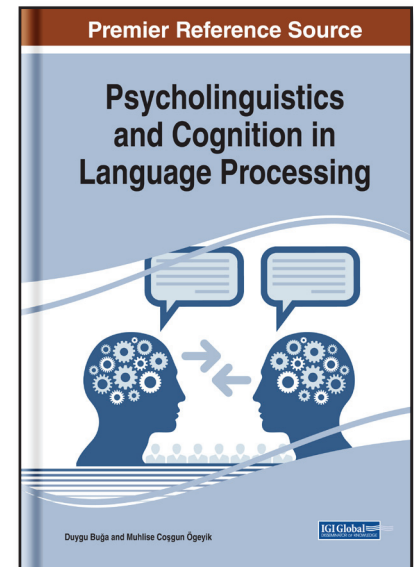

Part of the Advances in Linguistics and Communication Studies Book Series

Duygu Buğa (Independent Researcher, Turkey) and Muhlise Coşgun Ögeyik (Trakya University, Turkey)

Description:

The relationship between language and psychology is one that has been studied for centuries. Influencing one another, these two fields uncover how the human mind's processes are interrelated.

Psycholinguistics and Cognition in Language Processing is a critical scholarly resource that examines the mystery of language and the obscurity of psychology using innovative studies. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics, such as language acquisition, emotional aspects in foreign language learning, and speech learning model, this book is geared towards linguists, academicians, practitioners, and researchers, seeking current research on the cognitive and emotional synthesis of multilingualism.
