Revolutionizing the Development of Library and Information Professionals: Planning for the Future

Part of the Advances in Library and Information Science Book Series

Samantha Schmehl Hines
(Missoula College of the University of Montana, USA)

As more associations struggle with limited professional development funding, the opportunities for library and information experts to advance their skills are being examined in a more effective and cost-efficient manner.

Revolutionizing the Development of Library and Information Professionals: Planning for the Future examines the future of library professional development by investigating the aspects that make these development events worthwhile. This book is essential for library association personnel, educational institutions, and management personnel in large library systems to aid in determining future trends in professional development opportunities for their staff.

Topics Covered:

- Funding
- Financial Benefits
- Increased Membership
- Professional Development Opportunities
- Traditional Library Associations
- Virtual Professional Development
