Stacie Lynn Finley (Missouri State University, USA),
 Pamela Correll (Missouri State University, USA),
 Cathy Pearman (Missouri State University, USA) and
 Stephanie Huffman (Missouri State University, USA)

Description:

The use of academic discourse in today's educational environment has the potential to improve education for students from all backgrounds. To achieve this, further study on the best practices, challenges, and future opportunities is required.

Empowering and Engaging Students Through Academic Discourse shares the benefits of empowering and engaging students at all levels of education through the use of academic discourse. The book also provides insights for educators to become more knowledgeable, and therefore better equipped, to create spaces through discourse where cultural competence is cultivated. Covering key topics such as identity, linguistics, student autonomy, and language, this premier reference source is ideal for administrators, policymakers, industry professionals, researchers, academicians, scholars, practitioners, instructors, and students.
