ISSN: 2644-1675; EISSN: 2644-1683
Established 2020; Published Quarterly

Editor(s)-in-Chief: Lawrence Chung (University of Texas at Dallas, USA) and Hao Fan (Wuhan University, China)

Big data promises to evolutionize and revolutionize just about all walks of life, by improving analytical intelligence, and as such has increasingly attracted tremendous interests from both academia and industry. Its pragmatic utility, however, would seem to await not only real applications and experiences, but also the integration of a number of related areas - ranging from data science, AI and machine learning to business analytics, and intelligence and business process re-engineering. The International Journal of Big Data Intelligence and Applications (IJBDIA) is intended as a forum for exchanging ideas and results from the many related areas, as well as in bridging the gap between such individual areas.
