Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering (2 Vols.)

Part of the Advances in Systems Analysis, Software Engineering, and High Performance Computing Book Series

Vicente García Díaz (University of Oviedo, Spain), Juan Manuel Cueva Lovelle (University of Oviedo, Spain), and B. Cristina Pelayo García-Bustelo (University of Oviedo, Spain)

Professionals in the interdisciplinary field of computer science focus on the design, operation, and maintenance of computational systems and software. Methodologies and tools of engineering are utilized alongside the technological advancements of computer applications to develop efficient and precise databases of information.

The Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering combines relevant research from all facets of computer programming to provide a comprehensive look at the challenges and changes in the field. With information spanning topics such as design models, cloud computing, and security, this handbook is an essential reference source for academicians, researchers, practitioners, and students interested in the development and design of improved and effective technologies.

Topics Covered:
- Cloud Computing
- Computer Programming
- Databases
- Informatics
- Mobile Applications
- Model-Driven Architecture
- Systems Analysis

Print: US $515.00 | Perpetual: US $775.00
Print + Perpetual: US $1,030.00

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners. Ideal for classroom use.

Vicente García Díaz is an associate professor in the Computer Science Department of the University of Oviedo. He has a PhD from the University of Oviedo in computer engineering. His research interests include model-driven engineering, domain specific languages, technology for learning and entertainment, project risk management, software development processes and practices. He has graduated in Prevention of Occupational Risks and is a Certified Associate in Project Management through the Project Management Institute.
