

Exploring the Social and Academic Experiences of International Students in Higher Education Institutions

Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development (AHEPD) Book Series

Krishna Bista (University of Louisiana at Monroe, USA) and Charlotte Foster (Missouri Western State University, USA)

Description:

Cross-cultural experiences in university settings have a significant impact on students' lives by enriching the learning process and promoting cultural awareness and tolerance. While studying abroad offers students unique learning opportunities, educators must be able to effectively address the specific social and academic needs of multicultural learners.

Exploring the Social and Academic Experiences of International Students in Higher Education Institutions is a pivotal reference source for the latest research on the issues surrounding study abroad students in culturally diverse educational environments. Features various perspectives from a global context on ensuring the educational, structural, and social needs of international students are met.

Readers:

This book is ideally designed for university faculty, researchers, graduate students, policy makers, and academicians working with transnational students.
