Evidence Discovery and Assessment in Social Work Practice

Part of the Advances in Human Services and Public Health Book Series

Margaret Pack (Australian Catholic University, Australia) and Justin Cargill (Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand)

Social workers play a crucial part in contemporary society by ensuring that individuals are able to address, overcome, and manage obstacles in their daily lives. In an effort to better serve their clients, many practitioners have turned to evidence-based practice.

Evidence Discovery and Assessment in Social Work Practice provides practitioners with the tools necessary to locate, analyze, and apply the latest empirical research findings in the field to their individual practice. This premier reference work provides insights and support to professionals and researchers working in the fields of social work, counseling, psychotherapy, case management, and psychology.

Topics Covered:

- Clinical Work Supervision
- Gender and Relationship Counseling
- High-Tech Neurosurgery
- Inter-Agency Collaboration
- Self-Care
- Spiritual Approaches
- Therapeutic Group Work
