

Handbook of Research on Agricultural Policy, Rural Development, and Entrepreneurship in Contemporary Economies

Part of the Advances in Environmental Engineering and Green Technologies Book Series

Jean Vasile Andrei (Petroleum-Gas University of Ploiesti, Romania), Jonel Subic (Institute of Economics Agriculture, Russia), Aleksander Grubor (University of Novi Sad, Russia) and Donatella Privitera (University of Catania, Italy)

Description:

Promoting rural entrepreneurship is a necessary step to limit the negative effects of classical agricultural policy based on a linear process and attracting secondary resources to the economic process. The analysis of agricultural policy and rural development in conjunction to entrepreneurship in terms of production may represent a further step in understanding the role and importance of diversifying the rural potentials in contemporary economies.

The Handbook of Research on Agricultural Policy, Rural Development, and Entrepreneurship in Contemporary Economies is an essential publication of academic research that examines agricultural policy and its impact on shaping future resilient economy in rural areas and identifies green business models and new business patterns in rural communities. Covering a range of topics such as entrepreneurship, product management, and marketing, this book is ideal for researchers, policymakers, academicians, economists, agriculture professionals, rural developers, business investors, and students.
