Conversational Agents and Natural Language Interaction: Techniques and Effective Practices

Diana Perez-Marín (Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, Spain) and Ismael Pascual-Nieto (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Spain)

By combining agent capabilities with computational linguistics, conversational agents can exploit natural language technologies to improve communication between humans and computers.

Conversational Agents and Natural Language Interaction: Techniques and Effective Practices is a reference guide for researchers entering the promising field of conversational agents. It provides an introduction to fundamental concepts in the field, collects experiences of researchers working on conversational agents, and reviews techniques for the design and application of conversational agents. The book discusses the successes of and challenges faced by researchers, designers, and programmers who want to use conversational agents for e-commerce, help desks, website navigation, personalized service, and training or education applications.

Topics Covered:

- Agent Capabilities
- Agent Expressiveness
- Computational Linguistics
- Conversational Agents
- Conversational Personal Assistants
- Design of Conversational Agents
- Dialogue Management Techniques
- Interactive Agents
- Natural Language (NL) Interaction
- User Interaction and Conversational Agents

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners and is ideal for classroom use.

Diana Pérez-Marín received the Ph.D. degree in Computer Science and Engineering from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid in 2007 and her degree in Computer Science by the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid in 2002. She is currently a lecturer and researcher at the Department of Computing Languages and Systems I of the Computer Science Faculty of the Universidad Rey Juan Carlos in Spain. Her PhD has been published in 2010 by VDM Verlag and it is available with ISBN 978-3639207200. She has published more than 40 papers in international journals such as Journal of Educational Technology and Society, or Computers and Education and participated in eight national and international research projects. She has been awarded a prize to their novelty of the teaching possibilities of Internet in 2007 and as project leader in 2008. In 2010, she organized the First International Workshop on Adaptation and Personalization in E-B/Learning using Pedagogic Conversational Agents (APLeC) together with Dr. Ismael Pascual-Nieto and Dr. Susan Bull, collocated with the international conference User Modeling, Adaptation and Personalization (UMAP). Currently, she is also co-editor of a Special Issue on Automatic Free-text Evaluation in the International Journal of Continuing Engineering Education and Life-Long Learning (IJCEELL) to be published by Inderscience at the end of 2010. She is member of the Artificial Intelligence in Education (AI-ED) Society, LEMORE, LITE, and ADIE.
