

Role and Impact of Tourism in Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation

Part of the Advances in Hospitality, Tourism, and the Services Industry Book Series

Jorge Tavares da Silva (University of Aveiro, GOVCOPP, Portugal & University of Coimbra, Portugal), Zélia Breda (University of Aveiro, GOVCOPP, Portugal), and Fabio Carbone (Coventry University, Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations, UK & University of Aveiro, GOVCOPP, Portugal)

Description:

Though conflict is normal and can never fully be prevented in the international arena, such conflicts should not lead to loss of innocent life. Tourism can offer a bottom-up approach in the mediation process and contribute to the transformation of conflicts by allowing a way to contradict official barriers motivated by religious, political, or ethnic division. Tourism has both the means and the motivation to ensure the long-term success of prevention efforts.

Role and Impact of Tourism in Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation is an essential reference source that provides an approach to peace through tourism by presenting a theoretical framework of tourism dynamics in international relations, as well as a set of peacebuilding case studies that illustrate the role of tourism in violent or critical scenarios of conflict. Featuring research on topics such as cultural diversity, multicultural interaction, and international relations, this book is ideally designed for policymakers, government officials, international relations experts, academicians, students, and researchers.
