

Global Leadership Initiatives for Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding

Part of the Advances in Electronic Government, Digital Divide, and Regional Development Book Series

Andrew H. Campbell (International Peace and Leadership Institute, USA)

Foreword by Lawrence Olufemi Obisakin the Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Nigeria to the Republic of Benin

Description:

One global leadership challenge is managing the complexity of the political and economic climate of a society. As the global environment changes, it is essential for global leaders to adapt and develop flexible strategies for resolving conflicts and achieving peace.

Global Leadership Initiatives for Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding provides emerging research on a leader's role in the international, national, and nongovernmental organization within post-conflict resolution and peaceful leadership. While highlighting topics, such as civil society organizations, leadership education, and social reconstruction, this book explores leadership theories and practice models to conceptualize the intersection of leadership within conflict management and resolution. This book is an important resource for leaders, scholar-practitioners, educators, and researchers seeking current research on the strategic and diplomatic methods of a peaceful global organization.
