Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development Book Series

Mihaela Badea (Petroleum-Gas University of Ploiesti, Romania) and Mihaela Suditu (Petroleum-Gas University of Ploiesti, Romania)

Description:

Nonviolent environments are desirable in many areas of life, yet none are as essential as within our educational institutions. Providing a safe space for students has become a critical concern in modern society.

Violence Prevention and Safety Promotion in Higher Education Settings is a vital resource that examines the current sources of violence within educational systems, and it offers solutions on how to provide a safer space for both students and educators alike. Highlighting pertinent areas of interest including technological violence, academic regulations, nonviolent communication, and gender discrimination, this reference publication is ideal for academicians, future educators, students, and researchers interested in recent advancements that aid in providing secure, safe educational environments for everyone.
