The International Journal of Materials Forming and Machining Processes (IJMFMP) is a refereed journal that publishes high quality articles with an emphasis on research and development in forming materials and machining processes. The formability and machinability of all materials is considered, including metals, polymers, ceramics, composites, biomaterials, nanomaterials, etc. IJMFMP also covers the statistical, computational, and optimization techniques applied in materials forming and machining processes. The journal promotes environmentally friendly forming and machining technologies as well.
