

Cases on Responsive and Responsible Learning in Higher Education

Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development Book Series

Nor Aziah Alias (Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia), Sharipah Ruzaina Syed-Aris (Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia) and Hamimah Hashim (Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia)

Description:

Responsive learning and responsible learning have not been considered and utilized appropriately in the past, especially in light of the post-pandemic higher education landscape. A discussion and consideration of the different elements that make up responsive and responsible learning such as agency, agility, mindfulness, connectedness, resourcefulness, active and seamless learning, and regulation of learning are required to advance the field of higher education.

Cases on Responsive and Responsible Learning in Higher Education encompasses cases on responsive and responsible learning in higher education and focuses on how the concepts are translated into practice by instructors, learning facilitators, and higher education managers. The book also deals with various practicalities and strategies and adopts existing models and frameworks for 21st century learning. Covering key topics such as learner agency, mindfulness, and personalized learning, this reference work is ideal for administrators, policymakers, researchers, academicians, practitioners, scholars, instructors, and students.
