

Practice and Progress in Social Design and Sustainability

Part of the Practice, Progress, and Proficiency in Sustainability Book Series

Kin Wai Michael Siu (The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong) and Yin Lin Wong (The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong)

Description:

Designers provide creative solutions for user problems and identify the needs of users in a given environment. However, it is often difficult to understand the social design of a product or service.

Practice and Progress in Social Design and Sustainability is a critical scholarly resource that provides groundbreaking research on social contributions to design. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as rural sustainability, ecological farmhouse designs, and community public spaces, this book is geared towards architects, designers, program planners, entrepreneurs, and engineers seeking information about design for resolving social issues.
