Policies and Initiatives for the Internationalization of Higher Education

Part of the Advances in Higher Education and Professional Development Book Series

Fatoş Silman (Cyprus International University, Cyprus), Fahriye Altinay Aksal (Near East University, Cyprus) and Zehra Altinay Gazi (Near East University, Cyprus)

Description:
Today, globalization highlights the importance of cultural diversity within countries, communities, and institutions while providing a better understanding of individuals and groups. By encouraging a focus on international perspectives in learning, teaching, and recruitment, educational institutions are able to adapt to a globalized society.

Policies and Initiatives for the Internationalization of Higher Education in Developing Nations provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of implementing the processes of internationalization, as well as its political, economic, historic, and organizational barriers. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as systems theory, student mobility, and risk management, this publication is ideally designed for education researchers, academicians, policymakers, graduate-level students, and administrators seeking current research on the policies and initiatives practiced by institutions and individuals in order to compete with the influences of globalization.

Topics Covered:

- Cultural Diversity
- Environmental Issues
- Globalization
- Inclusive Learning
- Institutionalism
- Language Policies
- Risk Management
- Student Mobility
- Systems Theory
- Teacher Recruitment
