

Capital Management and Budgeting in the Public Sector

Part of the Advances in Finance, Accounting, and Economics Book Series

Arwiphawee Srithongrung (Wichita State University, USA), Natalia B. Ermasova (Governors State University, USA) and Juita-Elena (Wie) Yusuf (Old Dominion University, USA)

Description:

To create an enhanced quality of life, attract business relocation, and enhance equity in access to public infrastructure, governmental bodies must take certain precautions with their money. Budgeting at such a high level requires careful evaluation and research that addresses every aspect of financial management.

Capital Management and Budgeting in the Public Sector provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of long-term capital planning, annual capital budgeting, capital budget execution, and public spending evaluation. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as fiscal federalism, political regime, and project execution management, this book is ideally designed for managers, accountants, professionals, practitioners, and researchers working in the areas of public finance and/or international development.
