

Intercultural Relations and Ethnic Conflict in Asia

Part of the Advances in Religious and Cultural Studies Book Series

Swati Jaywant Rao Bute (AMITY University, India)

Description:

Many geographically diverse regions in the world contain a rich variety of cultures within them. While some have many socio-cultural similarities, tensions can still arise to make such areas unstable and vulnerable.

Intercultural Relations and Ethnic Conflict in Asia is a critical reference source for the latest scholarly research on the economic, political, and socio-cultural disputes occurring throughout various South Asian countries and the effects of these struggles on citizens and governments. Highlights pertinent issues relating to patterns of conflict, the role of media outlets, and governmental relations.

Readers:

This book is ideally designed for academicians, upper-level students, practitioners, and professionals.
