

Examining the Emotional Dimensions of Academic Librarianship: Emerging Research and Opportunities

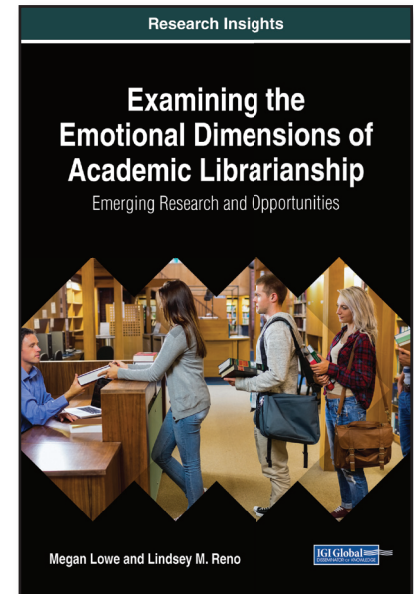

Part of the Advances in Library and Information Science Book Series

Megan Lowe (University of Louisiana – Monroe, USA) and Lindsey M. Reno (University of New Orleans, USA)

Description:

Longevity and sustainability in a career field is dependent upon a number of factors. Evaluating the mental and emotional issues that academic librarians face can provide solutions to combat the burnout this field is facing in the wake of so many large-scale industry changes.

Examining the Emotional Dimensions of Academic Librarianship: Emerging Research and Opportunities is an essential scholarly resource that offers detailed discussion on the latest crises and challenges for librarians and supplies innovative solutions to these issues. Highlighting relevant topics such as emotional exhaustion, research agendas, and deselection, this publication is an ideal resource for librarians, academicians, students, and researchers who have an interest in the mental and emotional landscape of modern library environments.
