

What Makes IGI Global Different?

Focused on the Research Community
 IGI Global is deeply rooted in the mindset that quality research, no matter how niche or underrepresented, needs to be published to expand the body of knowledge.
Quality-Centric and Peer-Reviewed Publishing Process
 All of IGI Global's publications undergo a double-blind peer review process, ensuring all research is of the utmost quality, which is showcased through our full membership to the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).
Forward-Thinking and Ahead of the Industry
 IGI Global's reference publications are being produced as quickly as other publishers' serial publications. With a 4-5-month turn-around time, IGI Global produces the most innovative, peer-reviewed research available to the academic community in nearly every academic discipline, including:
 - Business and Management
 - Computer Science and IT
 - Education
 - Environment and Agriculture
 - Government and Law
 - Library and Information Science
 - Media and Communications
 - Medicine and Healthcare
 - Science and Engineering
 - Security and Forensics
 - Social Sciences and Humanities
Pioneering Product Offerings
 IGI Global provides customized solutions and products through integrating the latest systems well in advance of their peers. For instance, announced well before open access (OA) mandates, they offered IGI Global's OA Fee Waiver (Read and Publish) Initiative, which is a true read and publish model that provides institutions 100% OA APC waivers through their libraries' investment in IGI Global content.
